The Intelligencer.

IN SCHOOL DAYS.

Hill sits the school house by the road, A ragged beggar sunning, Around itstill the sureaching of w. And blackborry wines are running.

Within, the mastells desk is seen, Deep scarred by raps official; The warping floor, the battered sents, The jack-anife's carved initial;

The charcoal frescoes on its wall;
Its door's worn all, betraying
The feet shat, creeping slow to school
Went storming out to playing;

t louched the tangled golden curis, And brown eyes ruli of grieving, And brown eyes ruli of grieving,

Pushing with restions feet the snow To right and left he lingeren:— As restionly her thy hands The blue-checked apron fingered.

He saw her lift her eyes; he felt The soft hand's light caresing, And heard the tremble of her voice As if a fault confessing.

'I'm sorry that I spelt the word; I hate to go above you, Secause,"—the brown eyes lower fell,— "Hocause, you see. I love you,"

Still memory to a gray baired man That sweet child-face is showing, Dear girl I the grasses on her grave Have forty years been growing!

He lives to learn, in life's hard school, liow few who pass above him Lament their triumph and his loss, Like her,—because they love him.

DARKER'S CAT.

A California Story by Mark Twain.

Whenever Dick Baker, of Deadhorse Gulch, was out of luck and a little down-hearted, he would fall to mourn-down-hearied, he would fall to mourn-ing over the loss of a wonderful cat he used to own (for where women and children are not, men of kindly im-pulse take up with pets, for they must love something.) And he alway spoke of the strange sugacity of that cat with the air of a man who believed in his secret heart, that there was something human about it—maybe even super-natural.

steamboat till we'd struck the pocket, and then get up and superintend, Well, by and by, up comes this quarts excitement. And everybody was into it—everybody was plotting and blasting instead of shoveling dirt on the bill side—everybody was putting down a shaft instead of scraping the surface. Nothing would do Jim, but we must tackle the ledges, too, and so we did. We commoneed putting down a shaft and Tom Quarts he began to wonder what in the Dickens it was all about. He hadn't never seen any mining like

And that was the last we seen of him for about two minutes and a half, and then all of a sndden it begin to rain rocks and rubbage, and directly he come down ker-whop about ten foot off from where we stood. Well I reckon he was p'raps the ornerist looking beast you ever see. One ear was sto back on his neck, and his tall was stove up, and his cyc-winkers was swinged off, and he was all blacked up with powder and smoke and all sloppy with good off, and he was all blacked up with powder and smoke and all sloppy with good and smoke and slate to try to applogize—we couldn't say a word. He took a sort of a disgusted look at hisself, and then he looked at me—and it was just exactly the sages as if he had said—'Gonts, may be you think his amart to take advantage of a cut that aln't had no experience of

MRS, ABRAHAM LINCOLN is living in Frankfort-on-the-Main, and the story of her intended marriage is denied by a correspondent of the New York Times, who adds: 'She occupies a small spartment in the immediate neighborhood of the boarding-school attended by her youngest son, Tad. She lives in the humblest style, does not mingle in society, wears mourning up to the present day, receives no gentlemen visitors, has never resided in the Grand Duchy of Baden, nor been at or near the Baden Court, and is entirely unacquainted with the count with whom her name has been coupled.' a correspondent of the New York Times

Dn. G. M. Bourns, sixty-four years of age, a vegetarian, and for thirty-five years a total abstinent from liquors, to-bacco, tea and coffee, started from City Hall, in San Francisco, at midnight on rast, in can Francisco, at midnight or the 19th last, and walked through to San Jose, a distance of fifty-five miles accomplishing the task in eighteen hours and fifty minutes. He counted the number of steps and found it to be 101,708.

A LYNGHBURG paper says that a number of gentlemen in that city are about to renew the business of manufacturing tobacco, encouraged by the belief that under the present administration of the Government the revenue regulations will be rigidly and impartially enforced, and that therefore, there is across present of profit from the legis some prospect of profit from the legi imate operations of the business.

A New Discovery ! PHALON'S

For Restoring to Grave Hair its Original Color

PHALON'S "VITAMA" differs secret heart that there was something human about it—maybe even supermatural.

I heard him talking about this sulmal once. He said, Gentlemen, I used to have a cat here, by the name of Tom Quarts, which you'd a took an interest in, I reckon—most anybody would. I had him here eight years—and he was the remarkablest cat I ever see. He was a large gray one of the Tom specie, and he had more hard, natural sense than any man in his camp, and a power of dignity; he wouldn't a let the gov'ner of California be femiliar with him He never ketched a rat in his He—peared to be above it. He never cared for nothing but mining, that cat did, than any man I ever see. You couldn't tell him nothing about placer digging—and ms for pocket mining, he was just burn for it. He would dig out after me and Jim when we went over the hill prospecting, and he would trot along behind us for as much as five miles, if we went so far. And he had the best Judgment about mining ground—why you never see anything like it. Whon we went to work, he'd scatter a glance around, and if he didn't think much of the indications, he would give a look as much as to say, 'Well, 1711 have to get you to excuse me,' and without another word he'd hyste his nose into the air and shove for home. But if the ground suited him, he would any low and keep dark till the first pan was washed, and tine he would side up and take a look, and if there was about six or seven grains of gold he was statemboat till we'd struck the pocket, and then get up and anperintend.

Well, by and by, up comes this quarts excluencei. And overybody was late. utterly from all the "dyes," colorers," and "restorers" (?) in pic. It acts on a totally different principle. It is limpid, fragrant, and perfeetly innocuous, precipitates no muddy or flacculent matter, requires no shaking up, and communicates no tain to the skin or the liner. No paper curtain is necessary to conceal its turbid appearance, for the simple reason that it i. not turbin. It is, to all intents and purposes, A NEW DISCOVERY in Toiler Chemistry.

what in the Dickens it was all about, He hadn't never seen any mining like that before, and he was all upeet, as you may say,—he couldn't come to a right understanding of it in o way—it was too many for him. He was down on it, box, you bet you—he was down on it powerful—and always appeared to consider it the cussedest foolishness out. But that cat, you know, he was always agin new faugled arrangements; somehow he could never abide 'em. You know how it is with old habits. But by and by Tom Quariz begin to get sort of reconciled a little, though he never could altogether understand that eternal sinking of a shaft and never panning out anything. At last he got to coming down in the shaft, himself, to try to cypher it out. And when he'd got the blues, and deskind o' soruffy, aggravated and disquested— CURE OF DYSPEPSIA AND SUROFULA FABRERBEURG, April 19.

T. H. LOGAN, Esq.—Deer Bir.—I wrote to you some time since for a bottle of Brentlinger's Finish Extract of Barnaparilla and Dandellon, and most say that it has acted upon me like a charm. I have been affiled to near two years with Dyspepaia; two-thirds of the time I vomited from one to three times a day. I had given up the idea of ever getting well and indeed my friends had given up the idea of ever getting well again. Added to this, I suffered with the Seroutia very much. Since last September one side of my neck was one entersore, composed of some seven running sores. The use of one belies has much line sore. One possible has much include the sort of the so knowing as he did that the Bills was running up all the time and we warn't making a cent—he would curl up on a gunny sack in the cornar and go to sleep. Well, one day when the shaft was down about eight loot, the rock got so hard that we had to put in a blast—the first blasting we'd ever done since Tom Quariz was born. And then we lit the fuse and clumb out and got off about 50 yards,—and forgot and left Tom Quariz sound asleep on the gunny sack. In about a minute we seen a puff of smoke burst up out of the hole, and then everything let go with an awful crash, and about four million tone of rock and dirt and smoke and splinters shot up about a mile and a half into the air; and, by George I right in the indist of it was old Tom Quariz going end over end, and a snorting and a sneezing, sait a clawing and a resching for things like all possessed. But it warn't no use, you know, it EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF MERCU-RIAL DISEASE.

DEAR DOTOR: - You know what was my condition when I called upon you. I was sores all over, literally covered with masty black scabe, and so pained in my joints at night, that sleep or rest was ulterly imposible. We constitution seemed entirely brokes down, and I was almost in despair brokes down, and I was almost in despair porting cured, having tried many physicians, and used numerous preparations purporting to be remedies, without the least sign of success. But I am now happy to say, that after using those live bottles of your elarasparilia and Dandellon, and only two boxes of the Pills, I became perfectly restored, inwe returned to my post on the boat, and feel at this time as storit as ever I did in my life. Please accopt my thanks, and believe me ever yours.

PARKERSBURG, April 19,

if he had said—tens, hayoe you think li's smart to take advantage of a cat that ain't had no experience of quartz mining, but I think different—and then he turned on his heel and marched off home without saying another word.

That was jest his style. And may be you won't believe it, but after that you never see a cat so prejudiced agin quartz mining as what he was. And by-and-by when he did get to going down in the shaft agin, you'd a been astonished at his sagacity. The minute we'd touch off a blast and the fuse'd begin to sizzle, he'd give a look as much as to say: 'Well, I'll have to get you to excuse me,' and it was surprising, the way he'd shin out of that hole and go for a tree.

Sagacity? It ain't no name for it.
'Twus inspiration!

I said: 'Well, Mr. Baker, this prejudice against quartz mining was re-3-4 Plate, 16 and 20 Sizes.
